

Thank you for choosing Pactimo!

We are excited to have your team/club among the thousands who have chosen Pactimo since 2003.

As a matter of fact, we have now shipped over 1 million garments to World Champions, Olympians, professional teams, elite clubs and everyday cyclists all around the globe. Born in Colorado, the epicenter of North American cycling, Pactimo finds continuous inspiration in our home's breath-taking beauty and extreme conditions to develop cycling apparel for every climate, elevation, and adventure. We hope you not only enjoy enduring comfort in our clothing, but are able achieve all of your cycling aspirations.

HOW PACTIMO FITS

Pactimo apparel is made to fit when you're on the bike. Please keep this in mind when you try things on. We pride ourselves in consistency and want to be sure you make the best choice. Though some garments are designed to fit in a specific manner – relaxed, slim, or skinsuit close – you'll generally wear the same size in each.

A few things to keep in mind:

- Men's size tags in collar are black
- Women's size tags in collar are white
- Garment type/name is either in the collar or on the Fit Kit
- Please wear undergarments when trying on bibs or shorts

Important stuff here!

Please Note: While we do not provide every size available, we do have other tools to assist. For sizes above or below the selection provided, we recommend you consult with our online "What Size am I?" tool. It is available and specific for a majority of our garments. We also have size charts online. Occasionally, we may need to provide substitutions for garments that are out of stock. These garments provide an accurate reference for fit. We work hard to provide the exact item whenever we can, but demand is high for much of our gear. Thank you for your understanding.
